

2020 Atlantic Medical Radiation Technology Conference

2nd Atlantic MRT Conference April 25, 2020

*Moncton, New Brunswick
Delta Beausejour Hotel*

AGENDA

0730-0800 - Registration

0800-0815 - Welcoming

0815-0845 - CAMRT Update

0845-0945 - Lisa Pyke - “LEADS Leadership Capabilities in a Caring Environment Framework to Support Medical Radiation Technologists Leadership in Canada”

0945-1015 - BREAK

1015-1200 - Andrea Janzen - “The Power of Conflict at Work – Why Embracing Conflict Is a Good Thing”

1200-1300 - LUNCH

1300-1400 - AMRTA Session – “Understanding How to Work Together”

1400-1530 - Heather Stamp-Nunes – “Five Dysfunctions of a Team”

1530-1545 - BREAK

1545-1700 - Keynote Speaker: Heather Moyse – “Redefining Realistic”
Sponsored by CAMRT

**Speakers and topics are subject to change at the discretion of the AMRTA*

2020 Conference

Speaker Bios

Hotel Beausejour Moncton
April 25th, 2020

Lisa Pyke, MA, RTR, RTMR, CHE

Lisa Pyke is the Manager of CADTH's Eastern Canada, Implementation Support Team; Lisa's career began in Halifax, at the Victoria General Hospital training as a Medical Radiation Technologist, followed by the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology training in MRI. Lisa has worked across the country in a variety of modalities and health care settings including serving as an X-ray, CT and MRI Technologist, and MRI Lead Coordinator as well, as interim Medical Imaging Department Manager. Lisa holds a Masters of Arts, Health Leadership from Royal Roads University, where she first discovered the power of the LEADS Framework to transform and transcend her Leadership practice. Lisa is passionate and committed to patient safety, evidence informed decision making, and to mentoring the next generation of health care leaders.

Andrea Janzen MBA, CEC

I'm a leadership coach and diversity consultant who is passionate about developing people, setting goals and getting results. I believe people are more capable than they let on. My clients tell me that my positive energy is contagious. I help my clients to see opportunities, feel ready to take action and make things happen. I offer my clients a balanced perspective by linking the human side of the business to the bottom line. I am a Certified Executive Coach through Royal Roads University and an Associate Certified Coach through the International Coach Federation. I have an MBA from the Schulich School of Business at York University and a BBA from Wilfrid Laurier University. I spent 15 years managing P&L's through progressive marketing positions on brands like Werther's Original, Absolut Vodka and Canadian Tire. I live in Halifax, NS Canada with my husband and 3 children and enjoy running, stand up paddle boarding and getting outside.

Heather Stamp-Nunes, B.B.A, M.Ed., CMP, ACC, CEC

Hailing from St. John's NL, Heather is an experienced strategist, certified executive coach, change management consultant, facilitator, and organizational and leadership development practitioner with more than 18 years' leadership and consulting experience. She currently leads her own coaching and consulting practice dedicated to leadership and organizational development, growth and success - for leaders, entrepreneurs and leadership teams. Heather is passionate about supporting individuals, teams and organizations through leadership learning and organizational culture and change.

Heather Moyse, OLY BSc MScOT

Four-time Olympian and 2x Olympic gold medalist, Heather Moyse is a multi-sport athlete and highly respected motivational speaker. She's competed internationally in track cycling, rugby and bobsleigh, in which she and her teammate won gold medals at the Vancouver and Sochi Winter Olympic Games in 2010 and 2014, respectively. And in November 2016 was the first Canadian female and only second Canadian ever to be inducted into the World Rugby Hall of Fame. Having overcome multiple, career-threatening injuries, Heather uses her personal experience – and professional training as an occupational therapist – to encourage and inspire others to embrace challenges and face adversity head-on, to believe in the possibilities of achieving their dreams, and to step outside of their comfort zones to discover and maximize their potential whether in sport, business, or life. To further personally embrace these points, Heather summited the highest mountain in Antarctica in January 2016 to raise awareness for PTSD and raise money to help veterans and soon-to-be-retired members of our Canadian Armed Forces successfully transition back to civilian life after finishing their time in the Military. To reach and help more people with her messaging, Heather wrote a book called Redefining 'Realistic' – a personal invitation from her to her readers to believe in the possibilities, and discover, for themselves, what they are truly capable